The week of December 10th in Review:

The 5th/6th grade boys' basketball team had a green vs gold scrimmage on Monday. The boys played great and I noticed marked improvement in key fundamental areas that we had been working on. The team, as a whole, has come a long way and I look forward to our last game at home on Tuesday!

The 7th/8th grade boys' basketball team played two tough games last week on Monday and Wednesday. The boys played strong against Tekonsha as the score went back and forth the entire game, but in the end Tekonsha came out on top. When the Cougars matched up with the Rams of North Adams, it was a game that the Cougars held control of from start to finish earning them the win. Sam Lutz and Kedrick Wolcott lead the team, both games, in points while Noah Mosher stepped up on defense and with rebounding.

The varsity girls' basketball team played two tough and competitive games! Taking on East Jackson was a challenge and one that we stepped up and handled with confidence and control. The score was a battle finding us down by as much as nine points in the 3rd quarter. Your Lady Cougars kept up the fight and won the game by three points! Mary Harman led the team in points while Alyssa Phillips took control as point guard. We traveled to Rudolf Steiner of Ann Arbor on Friday evening and found ourselves playing a high caliber team. The girls kept up the fast pace game and overcame their struggles. I was very proud of the hardnosed play we had and the ability to never slowdown and look at the negatives. It was a great team to go up against to help develop our skills and prepare us for what's ahead!

The varsity boys' basketball team played on Friday evening. The boys have been facing challenges with injuries and illnesses. Both senior leaders, Evan Randall and Marcus Scrivens, are recovering from hand injuries, but were there for the team with support, encouragement and pointers. The Cougars took on the Storm with relentless work ethic and skill. Our boys were a challenge for the Storm until they got hot from the 3 point line. Leading the way for the Cougars were Brendan Busch, Rylee Jackson, Raymon Brown and Gabe Gadwood.

Sincerely,
