September 20, 2021

Hello from the Athletic Department!

On Tuesday our volleyball match with Litchfield was cancelled.

The JV and varsity volleyball team traveled to Waldron on Thursday, September 16th. The JV team won the first set 25-19, but fell to Waldron in the final two sets with scores of 19-25 and 9-15. The Varsity team played an excellent match and won in the first three sets with final scores of 25-20, 25-20 and 25-17.

The middle school volleyball team played and won two matches on Wednesday against Marlee. Gold scores were 12-25, 13-25, and 12-15. Green scores were 25-23, 14-25, and 15-12. Between the two matches, WCA served 29 aces! Kyndalyn Springborn led the team with 12 aces! Laura Bostic and Kherington Ladd contributed 3 aces each while Ava Lutz, Bella Brown, Maddie Fosdick, Mercedes Perez, and Valentina Brown all had 2 aces and Jayonna Johnson had one ace. Great work ladies!

The middle school and varsity cross country team ran in the SCAA Preview meet at St Phil on Monday.

Trapshooting continues tonight at 5:00 pm at the Halter Shooting Sports center in Bankers.

The North Adams-Jerome football team had their first home game of the season. They dropped a tough battle with St. Phil with a score of 34-48.

We had a great turnout for the elementary volleyball practice on Saturday, September 18th. Practice will continue this Saturday, September 25th from 9:00 am to 10:30 am.

Fall sports pictures for varsity volleyball and cross country have been rescheduled for today, Monday, September 20th after school. The trapshooting team pictures will also take place today at 5:00 pm at the range.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Thank you,
